Have you heard our exciting news?

In honor of our flagship brand's 90th anniversary, our parent company has changed its name from Continental Mills to The Krusteaz Company!

In Foodservice, you'll still know us as Krusteaz Professional and you will continue to see Continental Mills on our packaging.

But, we are energized by these changes and are looking forward to a future built on a culture of ingenuity that will continue to deliver some of the most beloved and trusted brands.
